ST. LOUIS' ORIGINAL SEARCH ENGINE®

St. Louis Public Library is currently accepting vendor submissions for the annual Comics Central on July 29 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. at Central Library.

Every year, hundreds of guests flock to Central to take part in the fun. Comics Central is the place to connect with fellow comics fans, meet comic writers, illustrators and local artists and to participate in free workshops. Come in cosplay and enjoy some good eats from St. Louis' best food trucks.

To apply for a vendor table, please complete the application and email it to jsong@spl.org. There is no vendor fee, but space is limited! Submission of application does not guarantee a space.
