ST. LOUIS PUBLIC LIBRARY

is a place for everyone.

Calling all tweens and teens! We are looking for YOU to design a new library card for St. Louis Public Library. Through your design on the back of this flyer, show us why St. Louis Public Library is a place for everyone.

Questions?
Send an email to cardcontest@slpl.org.

All entries become the property of the St. Louis Public Library. St. Louis Public Library is granted permission to use the artwork at its discretion.

TO ENTER:
- You need to be a student in grades 6-12, who currently attends school or homeschool in the City of St. Louis.
- You do not need to have a library card.
- Turn in this entry form at any St. Louis Public Library location.
- Prefer to create a digital image? We have a form for that! slpl.org/cardcontest
- Limit one entry per person.
- Submit your entry in person by 5 p.m. or online by 11:59 p.m. on January 14, 2023.

DESIGN SPECIFICS:
- Artwork must be original.
- Digital artwork should be 243 pixels x 153 pixels with a resolution of at least 300 dpi.
- File formats accepted: pdf, jpg or eps.

TIMELINE:
- November 1, 2022: The library card design contest opens!
- January 14, 2023: The last day to submit your design!
- February 16-28, 2023: The final 15 artists are contacted.
- May 1, 2023: The winner is announced! The new design is available for customers.
- May 1-30, 2023: The final 15 designs are on display at Central Library.
- May 11, 2023: The winner and finalists are invited to a celebratory event in the Carnegie Room at Central Library.

St. Louis Public Library is a place for everyone.

Design space for your artwork. Can be a vertical or horizontal.
Actual size will be 3 3/8" x 2 1/8"

NAME: _____

PHONE: _____

EMAIL: _____

GRADE: _____

SCHOOL: _____

ST. LOUIS PUBLIC LIBRARY